

The Post-Acquisition Process

Joining Volaris gives you the ability to preserve the legacy of your business and continue serving the best interests of your customers and employees. Our team will help your business reach the next level by tailoring the post-acquisition integration process to your company's specific goals and strategy. Here is a deeper look into our philosophy, Acquire – Strengthen – Grow.

ACQUIRE

Best practice sharing begins as soon as the acquisition is finalized

We will work together to develop a strategy to share the exciting news with customers

Employees will be introduced to Volaris Group and have an opportunity to get to know the Volaris team

You will continue to run your business with autonomy

STRENGTHEN

Employees and managers will participate in talent management planning

Strategic assessments of each area of your business will be conducted

We will develop an action plan with a focus on long-term, sustainable growth

Volaris will provide access to relevant support systems in all functional departments

GROW

Volaris will empower you to continue growing organically

With the financial backing of Volaris, you will be able to run organic growth initiatives more comfortably and confidently. You will have opportunities to discuss successes and obstacles that other leaders within Volaris faced so that your company can learn from them.

Volaris will encourage professional development for employees and leadership

We empower leaders to retain and develop their talent how they see fit for their organization. Volaris will host functional and leadership summits with our global community of companies and provide you with opportunities to grow within our organization.

We will encourage you to engage in M&A activities

If and when your company is ready to pursue acquisitions in your vertical, we will help by providing resources, knowledge, and best practices from our experiences.

If you have any questions about our post-acquisition process, feel free to reach out to mergers@volarisgroup.com.
